

Top 10 Questions Asked at...

CTC Braddock

1. Are cell phones permitted?

Yes. Reentrants must submit a request to their assigned case manager seeking authorization to possess a cell phone while assigned to the center.

2. Is there a black out period?

No. However, reentrants must complete the facility intake process before they are permitted to leave the building.

3. When can I get out of this center?

Movement can begin after meeting with your assigned case manager and successfully completing the facility intake process.

4. Will I be able to see my family?

Yes. Movement can begin after facility intake is completed and you have met with your assigned case manager. CTC Braddock also offers visitation every Sunday from 1 to 4 pm.

5. Can I bring food into the facility?

No. The facility will provide three meals per day to each reentrant.

6. Can I take clothes home to wash them?

No. There are coin operated laundry facilities at the center. You will be permitted to have laundry pods only, no bleach.

7. Who is my parole agent?

There are assigned parole agents to the facility. You will be informed of your assigned agent.

8. Can we have visitors?

CTC Braddock offers visiting hours every Sunday from 1 to 4 pm.

9. What time is curfew?

The curfew is set for 9 pm for all reentrants. By individual request, which must be approved by center and parole staff, additional time may be granted for medical or employment purposes.

10. How long does it take for a home plan to return?

After submitting a home plan to the assigned case manager or to your parole agent, parole agents will conduct an investigation to determine the appropriateness of the requested home plan site. The length of this process depends on the PBPP policies and procedures for completing and approving home plans.
