REIMAGINE REENTRY

Holistic Services for Returning Citizens

Why Reentry Services?

Across the country, two of every three people released from state corrections are rearrested for a new offense and about half are reincarcerated within three years of their release.

In Pennsylvania, sixty-three percent of parolees return to corrections within three years.

These men and women face immense systemic barriers that are only magnified by incarceration, such as low employment, lack of healthcare, limited education, a prevalence of homelessness, and much more.

Our Mission

Reimagine Reentry aims to reduce recidivism by providing opportunities, reducing barriers, and supporting returning citizens in a holistic way. Our services are:

- CASE MANAGEMENT & MENTORING
- WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT & TRAINING
- FAMILY REUNIFICATION EDUCATION
- HOUSING ASSISTANCE PLANNING

We follow a strengths-based approach to address the unique needs of returning citizens after they leave the corrections system.

How it Works

Enrollment to Reimagine Reentry begins with a referral from Pennsylvania Department of Corrections, your application, and then an interview process with our staff. Once selected, returning citizens will move through our program for three years:

- DEVELOP GOALS WITH YOUR CASE MANAGER.
- ESTABLISH HOUSING.
- GET TRAINING & MENTORING.
- AFTER THREE YEARS, GRADUATE FROM THE PROGRAM!
