Benefit Year	52 weeks following the Claim Effective Date. A claim is valid for one year.
Weekly Benefit Rate (WBR)	The maximum amount in benefits that employees are paid for a week when they are totally unemployed.
Partial Benefit Credit (PBC)	An amount that is equal to 30% of the Weekly Benefit Rate (WBR). This is the amount a claimant can earn in part-time without impacting their UC payment.
Maximum Benefit Amount (MBA)	The maximum amount in benefits employees may receive on their claims. It is equal to $WBR times Maximum number of full weeks.
Maximum Number of Full Weeks	The number of full weeks of benefits employees may potentially receive in a benefit year. The total number is between 18 and 26. It cannot be more than 26 weeks. Keep in mind that if a claimant collects partial benefits they can collect more the 26 weeks.
Dependents Claimed (max of 2)	An additional amount claimants may receive if they have a dependent spouse or children. The maximum number allowed is two dependents.
Weekly Dependent's Allowance	Weekly dependent allowance for 1 dependent is $5. The per-week allowance for two or more dependents is $8.

This financial determination was calculated, using the wages and credit weeks paid during employment between MM/DD/YYYY and MM/DD/YYYY (the Base Year of this claim) as reported by your company to the department. The base year is the first four of the last five completed quarters immediately preceding the Claim Effective Date.
