

Special Notice

Board Recognition of International Society for Clinical Densitometry (ISCD)

October, 2008

The State Board of Medicine voted at its October 28, 2008 meeting to recognize the International Society for Clinical Densitometry as an accrediting body under Section 45(d) of the Medical Practice Act, 63 P.S. § 422.45(d).

Therefore, ISCD certification of technologists in the performance of bone densitometry is recognized as an acceptable alternative to American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) certification in the field of bone densitometry.
