

A Recap of the 2024 SAS Institute

From December 8-11, members of educational communities across the Commonwealth participated in the 2024 SAS Institute: "Purposeful Leadership: Support. Empower. Partner." Throughout the Conference, participants attended breakout sessions, seminars, keynote speakers, and more that will help faculty, staff, and administration help cultivate a learning-focused teaching culture to boost student outcomes.

This year, we have compiled a Google Drive folder with photos from Monday and Tuesday's sessions. Whether you attended a keynote, participated in a workshop, or networked with fellow educators, we hope these memories reflect the shared commitment you have to Pennsylvania's learners. We thank everyone who joined us and contributed to making this year's SAS Institute a success and look forward to seeing you at future events!
