

Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) Eligibility Chart

SFSP is a Federal meal service program for children from low income families or for children living in low income areas.

Camps	Enrolled Sites <small>An identified group of children.</small>	Open Sites
Must have activities	Activities optional	Activities optional
Camps are reimbursed only for the number of children proven eligible.	50% of the enrollment must be eligible. All meals are reimbursed.	All meals reimbursed. Children are served on “first come, first served” basis.
Two methods to prove eligibility: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. List of children’s names from school with reduced priced/free eligibility information listed 2. Household Application for Free and Reduced-Price Summer Meals Forms and list of children’s names 	Two methods to prove eligibility: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. List of children’s names from school with reduced priced/free eligibility information listed 2. Household Application for Free and Reduced-Price Summer Meals Forms and list of children’s names 	Area Eligibility (includes census and school data) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Census – use the website: www.fns.usda.gov/areaeligibility ➤ School Data – site location must be in attendance area of a school that serves 50% or more free and reduced-price meals in the National School Lunch Program and the School Breakfast Program
Up to 3 meals daily permitted (or 2 meals and 1 snack)	Up to 2 meals daily	Up to 2 meals daily
Automatic eligibility includes: homeless, runaway, foster or migrant children, sites that serve only Upward Bound participants, children enrolled in Federally funded Head Start, early Head Start, or pre-kindergarten program, participation in SNAP, PDPIR or TNF assistance programs.
Eligibility documents must be submitted before claims can be paid		