

Life of a Trout

Circle native or non-native for each trout below. Look back to "Who's Related to Whom?" to discover which of these trout is native to Pennsylvania. Label each of the habitats below using the information on the next page in "Key Habitats." Cut out each of the life cycle stages on the next page in the "Life Cycle Match" box and paste them on the stream in life cycle order.

Rainbow Trout

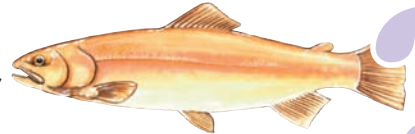

NATIVE/NON-NATIVE

Brown Trout

NATIVE/NON-NATIVE

Golden Rainbow Trout

NATIVE/NON-NATIVE

Key Habitat 1:

Key Habitat 2:

Steelhead

NATIVE/NON-NATIVE

Brown Trout

NATIVE/NON-NATIVE

PLAY

Written by: Amidea Daniel, Northcentral Regional Education Specialist, and Dee Fisher, Central Regional Outreach and Education Coordinator

Editor: Spring Gearhart

Design: Jeff Decker • Illustrations: Jeff Decker and Ted Walke

Photo: Jeff Decker

© Pennsylvania Fish & Boat Commission

Key Habitat 3:

www.fishandboat.com

Key Habitats

☀ Riffle: shallow, fast water agitated by rocks.

☀ Run: any body of water that runs smoothly downstream.

☀ Pool: deep, slow-moving water that is formed from the force of the water falling over boulders or logs in the stream.

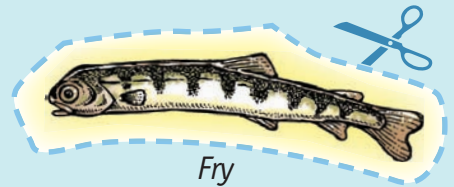

Life Cycle Match

Fertilized Egg

Sac Fry

Fry

Fingerling

Adult
Brook
Trout

To learn more, visit:

Pennsylvania Trout In the Classroom
www.patrountintheclassroom.org

Habitat and the Brook Trout

www.fishandboat.com/anglerboater/2000/marap00/habtrout.htm

Approved Trout Waters

www.fishandboat.com/fishpub/summary/troutwaters.html

Pennsylvania Trout Stocking Schedules

www.fishandboat.com/stock.htm

Pennsylvania Cooperative Nurseries

www.fishandboat.com/coopnurs.htm

