Through generous donations, the Wild Resource Conservation Board has been able to fund many projects including reestablishing the River Otter, reintroducing the osprey, and generating a computer database of endangered and threatened species in PA. The painting depicts the Pennsylvania Railroad's Broadway Limited on its Chicago to New York run as the first light of day breaks along the Juniata River in central Pennsylvania. The registration plate reproduces the rich, deep colors of Teller's original work of art, capturing the power and speed of the onrushing locomotive. The Pennsylvania Railroad played a key role in making the commonwealth a leader in the railroading industry. The "Penny" story comes alive at the world-class Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania in Strasburg, Lancaster County, and in the collections of the State Archives of Pennsylvania in Harrisburg.
