OPINION, COMMISSION'S DECISION
AND FINAL ORDER

On December 12, 1968, a Complaint was filed with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission (hereinafter referred to as "Commission") by Benjamin Thomas, Jr. against George R. Ulrich, doing business as George's Cafe, alleging that on October 23, 1968, the Respondent refused, withheld, and denied to the Complainant, because of his race (which was Negro), the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges of his place of public accommodation; further alleging that the Respondent operated George's Cafe, which was open to, accepted and solicited the patronage of the general public and that such a place was a "place of public accommodation" within the meaning of the Act of October 27, 1955, P.L. 744 as amended, in Section 4 (1) thereof, known as the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act.

Investigation of the facts in the case resulted in the finding of probable cause to credit the allegations of the Complaint and the Commission ordered a Public Hearing to be held in the matter, assigning as Hearing Commissioners, Stanley A. Miller, Chairman, and Wilma S. Heide and Andrew G. Freeman.

No Answer in this matter was filed by Respondent.

The Public Hearing was held on May 27, 1969, in the Community Room of the York Bank and Trust Company, 107 W. Market Street, York, Pa., beginning at 10:30 A.M., and Notes of Testimony in said hearing were taken by Eugene W. Holbert of Mohrbach & Marshall Inc.

The Commission was represented by Stanton W. Kratzok, Esq., its Assistant General Counsel, and Victor Dell'Alba, Esq. appeared for the Respondent. The Respondent and his witnesses were present in Court. The Complainant did not appear.

This matter was heard together with John Edwards, Complainant, vs George R. Ulrich, Doing Business As George's Cafe, Respondent, Docket No. P-563, and Charles E. Carter, Complainant, vs George R. Ulrich, Doing Business As George's Cafe, Respondent, Docket No. P-564.

At the conclusion of testimony in Docket Nos. P-563 and P-564, motion for dismissal of this matter, Docket No. P-561, was made on the ground that there was no testimony in support of the Complaint.

Since there was no testimony offered to prove the allegations herein, it is therefore recommended that the Commission enter an Order dismissing the Complaint against Respondent George R. Ulrich, doing business as George's Cafe.

COMMISSION'S DECISION

AND NOW, _____, 1969, upon the Recommendation of the Hearing Commissioners and in consideration that there was no testimony offered in support of the Complaint at the Public Hearing of this case, the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission, by unanimous decision, finds and determines that the Complaint of Benjamin Thomas, Jr. against George R. Ulrich, doing business as George's Cafe, be dismissed.
