COMPLAINANT'S ALLEGATIONS

The Complainant alleges that beginning on and/or occurring on and/or beginning prior and continuing on or about to wit April 11, 1975, the Respondent discriminated against the Complainant because of her race, black, by abolishing her position of receptionist-secretary. The Complainant further alleges that:

(1) She was granted a one year leave of absence starting August 23, 1974.

(2) She was told by her supervisor, Valerie Trout, that the position of receptionist-secretary would be kept open for her.

(3) In December 1974 she advised Ms. Trout that she was returning from her leave and would be back to work before Christmas 1974.

(4) She was told that her position would be discussed at the Statewide Executive Board January meeting and by the Personnel Practice Committee. Nothing positive came out of these meetings.

(5) In February or March 1975, Ms. Trout told the Complainant that her position of receptionist-secretary was abolished by the board.

(6) The above position was abolished after the Complainant had returned from her leave of absence.

(7) She was working "on call" never knowing when she would be working since December 1974.

(8) She was denied her full time position when the Respondent abolished it and refused to give her another full time position.
