

Public Participation changes to the Board’s Bylaws/Governance Framework

Written form:

Adopt Section 3.10 (PSERS Model Governance Manual Framework (“Governance Framework”)):

3.10 Public Participation. The Board shall provide, and may adopt policies governing, a reasonable opportunity for public participation and attendance at open meetings of the Board and Board committees in accordance with the Pennsylvania Sunshine Act.

Repeal Section 5.9 (Statement of Organization, Bylaws, and Other Procedures of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Public School Employees' Retirement Board ("Current Bylaws")):

Section 5.9. Public Participation. At any open meeting, the Chair or Committee Chair as the case may be shall, before entertaining any motion to adjourn, grant recognition to any member of the general public in attendance for the purpose of addressing the Board on any matter concerning the business and operations of the Board, subject, however, to such reasonable time limits as may be imposed on each speaker or on all such participation in the discretion of the Chair or Committee Chair as the case may be or by resolution of the Board. This Section 5.9 shall not apply to any proceeding governed by the Administrative Agency Act in relation to adjudications, nor to any proceeding for the adoption of rules and regulations or orders in the nature of rules and regulations.

Chart Form:

3.10 Public Participation	The Board shall provide, and may adopt policies governing, a reasonable opportunity for public participation and attendance at open meetings of the Board and Board committees in accordance with the Pennsylvania Sunshine Act.	Section 5.9. Public Participation.	At any open meeting, the Chair or Committee Chair as the case may be shall, before entertaining any motion to adjourn, grant recognition to any member of the general public in attendance for the purpose of addressing the Board on any matter concerning the business and operations of the Board, subject, however, to such reasonable time limits as may be imposed on each speaker or on all such participation in the discretion of the Chair or Committee Chair as the case may be or by resolution of the Board. This Section 5.9 shall not apply to any proceeding governed by the Administrative Agency Act in relation to adjudications, nor to any proceeding for the adoption of rules and regulations or orders in the nature of rules and regulations.
---	---	--	--