LETTER FROM THE CHAIRPERSON PRO TEMPORE

Dear Governor Wolf and Members of the General Assembly:

It is my pleasure to provide you with the Annual Report of the Professional Standards and Practices Commission (PSPC) for 2020. The Annual Report is designed to provide an overview of the PSPC's mission and operation, to identify major issues currently before the PSPC, and to report on the public disciplinary actions imposed in 2020.

Since its inception, the PSPC has worked arduously to safeguard the children of the commonwealth through the imposition of educator discipline. In furtherance of our adjudicatory duties, we continue to review and act upon educator discipline cases that are prosecuted by the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE). The number of reported cases has increased over the past few years, and the PSPC is working with PDE to find ways to ensure that this increase does not detract from an effective, fair, and efficient disciplinary process. A summary of the disciplinary actions taken in 2020 can be found in the body of this report.

While the disciplinary process consumes the majority of the PSPC's efforts, the PSPC strives to provide timely and pertinent advice to the State Board of Education (State Board) and PDE on issues related to the improvement of teacher preparation and certification. The PSPC also remains committed to augmenting our outreach efforts to school entities and educator preparation programs. These efforts are designed to inform the members of the education community about their individual responsibilities to the profession and to reduce the incidence of misconduct.

Finally, I would like to thank our executive director and legal counsel, Shane Crosby, and our administrative assistant, Kyle Shemory, for their guidance and dedication.

Respectfully,

Myron Yoder, Chairperson Pro Tempore

COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

The PSPC continues to provide leadership to the educational community predominantly through the work of its two standing committees. Each commissioner sits on either the Practices Committee or the Standards Committee. The Standards Committee is charged with fulfilling the advisory functions imposed by the Educator Discipline Act (“Act”), while the Practices Committee is responsible for reviewing and revising the implementation of the Act and its concomitant bylaws and regulations.

CALENDAR OF MEETINGS FOR 2020

By law, the PSPC must meet at least five times each year. In practice, the full PSPC typically meets every other month on either the second or the third Monday of the month. Additionally, PSPC panels convene as necessary to hear immediate suspension cases, and PSPC committees may meet more frequently depending on their respective projects. Meeting dates and times are publicized, and the public is welcome to attend. Regular meetings of the PSPC for 2020 were scheduled as follows:

January 13, 2020

March 23, 2020

May 11, 2020

July 27, 2020

September 14, 2020

November 23, 2020

MISSION STATEMENT

The PSPC is committed to providing leadership for improving the quality of education in the commonwealth by establishing high standards for preparation, certification, practice, and ethical conduct in the teaching profession.

INTRODUCTION

The PSPC was created by the General Assembly with the belief that educators, as members of a profession, should be self-governing. The PSPC is comprised of 13 voting members who broadly represent the education community in Pennsylvania. In addition, a member of the State Board sits ex officio as a non-voting member. Members are appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of a majority of the members of the Senate. Under the Act, the membership shall consist of:

- Six classroom teachers;
- Three administrators, at least one of whom is a commissioned officer and one a principal;
- One administrator from an approved institution of higher learning in the commonwealth offering approved teacher education programs;
- Two members from the general public, one of whom is an elected public school director; and
- One educational specialist.

Under the Act, the General Assembly established the PSPC as the legal adjudicatory body in the commonwealth for administering educator discipline and overseeing the reinstatement of certificates surrendered, suspended, or revoked and ensuring that the disciplinary process is fair and efficient. In addition, the General Assembly invested the PSPC with a host of advisory functions to assist the State Board and PDE in achieving excellence within the education profession. These advisory functions include providing recommendations on the following: certification standards and requirements; standards for professional educator preparation programs; and effectiveness of professional educator preparation programs.

The Act also tasks the PSPC with adopting and maintaining a Code of Professional Practice and Conduct for Educators (“code”). The code, which was first adopted in 1992, sets forth the standards of behavior that reflect the shared values of the educator community in Pennsylvania. Every educator in the commonwealth is expected to internalize and observe the standards of conduct espoused in the code. The code can be found in Chapter 235 of Title 22 of the Pennsylvania Code or on the PSPC website: www.pspc.education.pa.gov.

Each year, the PSPC compiles data regarding the disciplinary actions it imposes. The PSPC provides this data to the governor, the General Assembly, the State Board, members of the education profession, other stakeholders, and the public.

DISCIPLINARY AUTHORITY

PDE is responsible for the intake of complaints and for the investigation and prosecution of educator misconduct. PDE receives allegations of educator misconduct from various sources. Information regarding alleged misconduct may come from Pennsylvania Justice Network (JNET) referrals,¹ mandatory reports by school entities and educators,² or members of the public. The Act delineates a very specific process for the receipt and investigation of complaints and the commencement of formal disciplinary proceedings. If after investigation PDE determines discipline is warranted, PDE will file a Notice of Charges with the PSPC. Once a Notice of Charges is filed, in some cases the PSPC appoints a neutral hearing officer to conduct a hearing on its behalf and prepare a recommended decision. In other cases, the matter proceeds directly to the PSPC for adjudication. In all cases, the PSPC is the ultimate fact finder and adjudicator. The PSPC announces its decisions orally at its regularly scheduled public meetings. Written decisions are issued shortly thereafter. Decisions imposing public discipline are made public. Both the affected educator and PDE may appeal the PSPC's decision to the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court. For a detailed explanation of each step in the disciplinary process, please visit the PSPC website.

The PSPC's disciplinary authority extends to all educators. The term "educator" includes all individuals who are certificated as teachers, administrators, or educational specialists by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including individuals who hold private academic school certification. In addition to anyone who holds public or private academic school certification, the term "educator" includes two groups of non-certificated individuals who are included because of their employment in or with a school: charter or cyber charter school staff members, and contracted educational provider staff members. These individuals fall under the PSPC's jurisdiction, because they provide direct educational services to students and would be required to hold a certificate if they worked in a traditional public school.

Professional discipline refers to action taken by the PSPC against an educator's certification or eligibility to work as a charter or cyber charter school staff member or contracted educational provider staff member as a result of misconduct. Discipline ordered by the PSPC is separate from any discipline that may be imposed by an employer. Discipline imposed by an employer only affects the employment relationship between the individual and the employer, whereas discipline ordered by the PSPC may affect the individual's ability to teach in any local school entity in Pennsylvania. The PSPC may impose discipline in addition to any disciplinary action imposed by an employer for the same misconduct or even in the absence of local discipline.

Under the Act, discipline includes the following:

- Private Reprimand: A private written admonishment;

1. Pursuant to section 111.2 of the Public School Code of 1949, PDE is required to obtain and monitor public safety and criminal justice information, including, but not limited to, arrest and disposition information, for all educators and shall use such information for certification and discipline purposes. 24 P.S. § 1-111.2. PDE obtains and monitors public safety and criminal justice information through JNET. On September 18, 2013, JNET began automatically notifying via email PDE's Office of Chief Counsel whenever a significant event (e.g. an arrest, disposition, want, warrant, state parole violation, PennDOT change of address or death) occurs involving an educator.

2. Pursuant to section 9a of the Act (24 P.S. § 2070.9a), school entities are mandated to report educator misconduct to PDE under certain circumstances. A mandated school entity report is triggered if: an educator has been provided with notice of intent to dismiss or remove for cause; an educator is charged with or convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense; there are allegations that an educator engaged in sexual misconduct or sexual abuse or exploitation; there is reasonable cause to suspect that an educator has caused physical injury to a child or student as a result of negligence or malice; an educator has resigned, retired or otherwise separated from employment following allegations of misconduct; an educator is the subject of a child abuse report filed by the school entity; or the school entity knows an educator has been named as a perpetrator or as an individual responsible for injury or abuse in an indicated or founded report of child abuse. Section 9a also requires any educator with knowledge that another educator has engaged in conduct constituting sexual misconduct or sexual abuse or exploitation to file a report with PDE, his or her immediate supervisor and the chief school administrator.

A mandatory report is distinct from a complaint. If upon review, PDE determines discipline may be warranted, PDE will file a complaint and conduct an investigation.

- Public Reprimand: A public written admonishment;
- Suspension: The temporary termination of a certificate or employment eligibility for a fixed period, for an indefinite period, or until certain conditions are met;
- Revocation: The termination of a certificate or employment eligibility;
- Surrender: The termination by consent of a certificate or employment eligibility; and
- Supplemental Sanctions: Private or public disciplinary sanctions that focus on remediation or restitution.

Educators who receive a private or public reprimand may continue to work as educators. Educators whose certificates or employment eligibility are surrendered, suspended, or revoked may not be employed by a school entity in any position that requires certification or that would require certification in a traditional public school unless the PSPC reinstates the certificate or employment eligibility. The PSPC retains authority to reinstate certificates or employment eligibility previously surrendered, suspended, or revoked.

GROUNDS FOR DISCIPLINE

While there is no definitive list of actions that will result in discipline by the PSPC, there are certain categories of conduct that may, or in some cases will, trigger professional discipline. On a macro level, misconduct under the Act can be characterized as either criminal or non-criminal. As explained in more detail below, the distinction between criminal and non-criminal misconduct rests with the discretion that the PSPC has in fashioning discipline.

Discipline for Criminal Offenses (24 P.S. § 2070.9b)

An educator can be disciplined by the PSPC on the sole basis that the educator has been convicted of certain crimes. In these cases, a hearing is generally not necessary and the matter proceeds directly to the PSPC for adjudication once PDE has provided the PSPC with certified court documents evidencing the educator's conviction.

Section 9b of the Act (24 P.S. § 2070.9b) requires the PSPC to revoke the certificate and/or employment eligibility of any educator convicted of one of the crimes listed in section 111(e)(1)-(3) of the Public School Code of 1949, which include violent offenses, sex offenses, felony drug offenses, and similar offenses under the laws of other jurisdictions. The PSPC is also authorized to immediately suspend the certificate and/or employment eligibility of an educator charged with one of these offenses if the PSPC determines that the educator poses a threat to the health, safety or welfare of students, or other persons in a school.

Section 9b of the Act also requires the PSPC to revoke the certificate and/or employment eligibility of any educator convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. The decision of whether a crime involves moral turpitude rests with the PSPC. In making that determination, the PSPC considers only the statutory definition of the crime juxtaposed against the PSPC's definition of moral turpitude. The PSPC does not consider the conduct underlying the criminal conviction. Generally, all crimes involving dishonesty, fraud or deception are crimes involving moral turpitude. A list of crimes previously determined by the PSPC to be crimes involving moral turpitude is available on the PSPC website.

Not all educators who are convicted of a crime will face revocation of their certification or employment eligibility. Only convictions for crimes involving moral turpitude and crimes listed in section 111(e)(1)-(3) of the Public School Code result in an automatic revocation under the Act. In all other cases, PDE may pursue discipline against an educator convicted of a crime, but any discipline would be based upon the educator's conduct rather than the mere existence of a conviction and the PSPC has discretion in imposing discipline.

Imposition of Discipline on Additional Grounds (Non-Criminal Grounds) (24 P.S. § 2070.9c)

It is not necessary that an educator be convicted of a crime to be disciplined by the PSPC. The Act gives the PSPC broad authority to discipline educators on non-criminal grounds that encompass a wide variety of unprofessional behaviors. In these cases, PDE must prove in a hearing that the educator engaged in misconduct, and the PSPC is free to impose any level of discipline, or no discipline, as deemed appropriate based upon the unique facts and circumstances of the case.

The Act authorizes the PSPC to discipline educators who are found guilty of immorality, incompetency, intemperance, cruelty, negligence, sexual misconduct, sexual abuse or exploitation (definitions of these terms can be found in section 1b of the Act and Ch. 237 of Title 22 of the Pennsylvania Code), violations of the Code of Professional Practice and Conduct for Educators, violations of any provision of the Act of May 29, 1931 (P.L. 210, No. 126) (relating to improper or illegal use of certification status), failure to comply with duties under the Act, including mandatory reporting duties, and actions taken to threaten, coerce or discriminate or otherwise retaliate against an individual who in good faith reports actual or suspected misconduct under the Act or against complainants, victims, witnesses, or other individuals participating or cooperating in proceedings under the Act.

The actual activities that form the basis for discipline may include conduct occurring outside of school hours and off school property. There is no requirement that the conduct be directly related to the performance of professional duties on school grounds. Generally, any conduct that sets a bad example or endangers students, violates the code or an educator's legal obligations, or otherwise calls into question an educator's fitness to fulfill his or her professional or ethical responsibilities may serve as a basis for discipline.

Imposition of Discipline on Founded Reports (24 P.S. § 2070.9d)

Similar to a conviction for a crime involving moral turpitude or a crime set forth in section 111(e)(1)-(3) of the Public School Code of 1949, a founded report of child abuse also mandates revocation.

Section 9d provides that the PSPC shall direct PDE to revoke the certificate and/or employment eligibility of any educator who is named as the perpetrator or as an individual responsible for injury or abuse in a founded report of child abuse even if the educator has not been convicted of a crime.

Reciprocal Discipline (24 P.S. § 2070.9e)

Pennsylvania participates in a database administered by the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC). The NASDTEC Educator Identification Clearinghouse (Clearinghouse) is the national collection point for professional educator discipline actions taken by the fifty states, the District of Columbia, U.S. Department of Defense Educational Opportunity schools, Ontario, and Guam. Each jurisdiction submits all adverse actions taken against educators into the Clearinghouse and the information is shared with all participating jurisdictions. Prior to the issuance of any Pennsylvania certificate, PDE crosschecks the applicant against the Clearinghouse to ensure that no other jurisdiction has imposed discipline against the applicant. Similarly, PDE checks all disciplinary actions entered by other jurisdictions against its entire database monthly, which reveals whether any Pennsylvania certificate holders have been disciplined in another jurisdiction. Under the Act, the PSPC may impose identical or comparable discipline against a Pennsylvania educator if the discipline imposed by the other jurisdiction is for conduct that would be actionable in Pennsylvania, unless the educator can demonstrate certain legal reasons why the imposition of reciprocal discipline is unwarranted.

Reinstatement (24 P.S. § 2070.16)

The PSPC has the authority to reinstate certificates or employment eligibility surrendered, suspended, or revoked when to do so would be "just and proper." The PSPC considers several factors to determine if the educator is fit to return to teaching. The Act, however, permanently prohibits reinstatement if the educator's conduct involved sexual abuse or exploitation, or if the educator was convicted of a crime listed in section 111(e) of the Public School Code.

2020 DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

Educators in Pennsylvania are nationally recognized, highly qualified, and exemplify the high ethical standards embodied in the Code of Professional Practice and Conduct for Educators. While the number of educator misconduct cases has risen steadily over the last several years, less than 1 percent of the educators in Pennsylvania are involved in the educator disciplinary process each year.

The following tables reflect the public disciplinary actions imposed during the 2020 calendar year. Decisions that resulted in private reprimands are not captured in the tables.

All adjudications of the PSPC are available online. In addition, all of the information listed in the tables can be found online in the Notifications of Teaching Certificate Actions link on the PSPC website:

OUTREACH

The PSPC is committed to informing the profession and the public of the ethical and professional parameters that should govern the behavior of all educators. To that end, the PSPC has developed workshops that are designed to familiarize participants with the PSPC, the Code of Professional Practice and Conduct for Educators, the educator discipline system, mandatory reporting, appropriate student-teacher boundaries, professional conduct, and other relevant topics. Throughout 2020, PSPC staff provided outreach to teachers, administrators, students in teacher preparation programs, human resource professionals, and other stakeholders. In addition, thousands of educators and school staff members have successfully completed the PSPC’s three-hour Act 126 online course (see below under “Available Resources”), which was released in 2017. The PSPC welcomes questions and requests for workshops or other assistance. Please do not hesitate to contact us.

AVAILABLE RESOURCES

Information about the PSPC and the educator discipline system, including adjudications, is available online at www.pspc.education.pa.gov.

Ethics Toolkit

In collaboration with the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE), the PSPC created an online resource on professional ethics for teacher preparation programs and other users under the leadership of Dr. Oliver Dreon, Millersville University. The “Ethics Toolkit” is structured into eight modules designed to provide curricular resources for teacher preparation programs to inform pre-service teacher candidates throughout the commonwealth on issues related to educational ethics and certification. The modules include:

- The Ethical Teacher
- Private & Professional Lives
- Relationships with Students
- The Connected Teacher
- Teaching in a Diverse Society
- Improper Personal or Financial Gain
- The Ethical Colleague
- Fostering an Ethical School Climate

While the toolkit was designed initially for use with teacher preparation programs, the modules can be used by school entities or other educational stakeholders as a resource for instruction on ethical decision-making by educators in Pennsylvania. The Ethics Toolkit can be found online: www.pspc.education.pa.gov/ethics-toolkit

ACT 126 Online Course

Act 126 of 2012 (P.L. 1084, No. 126 Cl. 24 Session of 2012), amended the Public School Code of 1949 to mandate that all school entities (public schools, charter schools, cyber charter schools, private schools, nonpublic schools, intermediate units, and area vocational-technical schools) and independent contractors of school entities provide certain training to all employees, including contracted substitute teachers, who have direct contact with children.

The PSPC has developed a three-hour, four-module online course that partially satisfies the Act 126 training requirements as they relate to the Educator Discipline Act, the recognition and reporting of sexual misconduct, and appropriate student-teacher relationships. The course, titled "Professional Ethics and the Educator Discipline Act," consists of the following four modules:

- Module 1: Overview of the Educator Discipline System;
- Module 2: Establishing and Maintaining Appropriate Boundaries;
- Module 3: Sexual Misconduct; and
- Module 4: Protecting Students and Mandatory Reporting.

The course is available on the SAS Portal and the PSPC website free of charge. Participants receive Act 48 credit upon completion.
